Title: Majipoor Chronicles

Having published Lord Valentine's Castle after a four year hiatus from writing, an overflow of creative effort revealed itself in the following year's publication of Majipoor Chronicles. Both breaking new ground and filling in gaps left by Lord Valentine's Castle , Chronicles is an above average collection of shorts that leans more toward the literary than fantastic.

"Majipoor chronicles" is the second book in the Majipoor series, but can be read before "Lord Valentine's castle". Through eleven stories, some short, some a little longer, Silverberg explores many aspects of Majipoor: the relationship between the humans and the alien races, the huge geography of the planet, the influence of the King of Dreams, and other sociological elements.

Initially published through Eos, this originally came out in 1983. It would mark the third title in the ongoing 'Lord Valentine' series of novels. Continuing on from the last, it would provide the next episode in the long-running science-fiction saga. Set in the world of Majipoor, this looks at the background of Lord Valentines Castle conflict.
