Besides being a brilliant writer, Flannery O'Connor wrote quite a bit about the craft of writing. In this six-week course, we will look at O'Connor's essays about writing in Mystery and Manners, examine ways that she implemented her principles in her short stories, and implement those principles ourselves in short writing exercises.. My goal as instructor will not be to get you to mimic ...

Writing with Flannery O'Connor • The Habit

Fitzgerald defines the "habit of being" as "an excellence not only of action but of interior disposition and activity." The tendency to view literary letters as an author's unguarded self-portrait is not necessarily true when it comes to this collection because Flannery knew that she was writing these letters for posterity.
